As expressly advised by Daigo, we agree with the approach proposed below, with the understanding that you kindly note and address the following:	Done (See Below)
1) Limit the summary of C&P to 3 - 10 pages per current R-PP guidance (below);	Done
2) Attach the C&P Plan to the R-PP as Annex 1c;	The Uganda R-PP Consultation and Participation Plan (C&P) has been attached as document titled: “Uganda National REDD-plus Consultation and Participation Plan”
3) Mention in the summary the conflict and grievance redress mechanism and communication strategy, developed in conjunction with the C&P Plan; and	Done
4) Revise accordingly other relevant components, including the Component 5 (Budget table).	Done
Excerpt from Guidance note of the R-PP Guidelines Version 5: Please provide the following information in the space below:	The “excerpt” used in the preparation of this component 1c.
Consultations held so far in the development of the R-PP in one to three pages: Detail and document the contents of the consultation materials, the consultation outcomes, any next steps, and how the outcomes have been taken into account into the R-PP. If necessary, please use Annex 1c to present additional materials.	Details of the “consultations” held so far, forms part of Component 1b (and is not repeated here) except for an introductory paragraph (1.5.1)
Proposed full consultation and participation plan in three to ten pages. If necessary, please use Annex 1c to present additional materials. Note that the full consultation and participation plan is required, not a summary or draft input to ToR.	The “full consultation and participation plan” is actually attached as Annex 1c. Please note that within the R-PP the summary is presented and a full plan, which also includes the elements of the Awareness and Communication Strategy; and Conflict Resolution and Grievances Management System is attached. This is to confirm that what is contained in not a “summary or draft input to ToR”

The summary budget and funding request in Table 1b (the detailed budget and funding data go in Component 5).	Done
